Go to Schoology for class instructions. Email your teacher with questions/concerns. We will respond within 24 hours Monday-Friday. Office hours available upon request.

We want each and every one of you to know that we are committed to your education and to the needs you may have in our classes. Please do not hesitate to contact us via email. This is not an ideal situation, but we will make it work. Communication is the key. If you are struggling with anything at all, you need to let us know and we can conference together! Online learning is not for everyone and we are prepared to discuss with you anything that you need. We look forward to having you back in class soon!
